Carolann Ouellette, Director Maine Office of Outdoor Recreation and Representation

Carolann Ouellette is the former Director of the Maine Tourism Office and she now heads the newly created Maine Office of Outdoor Recreation. Carolann is focused on highlighting and branding Maine's tremendous recreational assets but working to make them more accessible to all.

Carolann will be joined by representatives from Maine Outdoor Brands to work with individuals and organizations in helping to drive Maine's economic development and also attract a younger demographic to our state. See their web page for more information.
